I have not seen
Gerald today.

Why?

Gerald!

What happened
to your trunk?

I broke
my trunk.

How did you
break your trunk?

It is a long,
crazy story.

Tell it!

Tell it!

Well . . .

I was playing with Hippo.

Then, I had an idea!
I wanted to lift Hippo
onto my trunk!

Why?

Because!

Okay.

So, I lifted Hippo
onto my trunk.

But, a hippo
on your trunk
is heavy.

Is that how you
broke your trunk?

No.

There is more
to my story.

Then, Rhino
showed up. . . .

Rhino wanted a turn.

What did you do?

I lifted both of them onto my trunk!

But, a hippo
and a rhino on your trunk are very heavy.

Is that how you
broke your trunk?

No.

There is more
to my story.

Then Hippo's sister
showed up!

Hippo has a sister?

A big sister...

Did she want
a turn, too?

Yes.

She also wanted
to play her piano.

Two hippos,
one rhino,
and a piano
on your trunk are very, very heavy.

Is that how you
broke your trunk?!

No.

This is a long, crazy story. . . .

Gerald?

HOW DID YOU BREAK
YOUR TRUNK!?!

Well, I was so proud of what I had done . . .

that I ran to tell
my very best friend about it!

But, I tripped and fell . . .

... and broke my trunk.

You broke your trunk running to tell me
your story?

That is a crazy
story!

That is a funny
story!

I want to tell someone your crazy story!

WHOOOP!

Piggie!

What happened
to your snout?!

It is a long,
crazy story. . . .

This is the book
I heard
so much about!

Pretending is when you

Wow...

And you can just do that?!

You can just go out
and pretend to be something you are not!?

Sure.
Everyone
pretends.

Even grown-up people?

All the time.

You really do
learn something new every day.

Do you want
to try it, Gerald?

Do you want
to pretend to be a frog?

Dear Reader,

Wow!

You read five Elephant & Piggie adventures in one book! Congratulations!

Reading every day is a great way to spark your imagination!

When I was a kid, I liked to imagine that I had an Invisible Invention Machine that made Invisible Inventions. My friend Laurie Keller “invented” a drawing of Elephant and Piggie in her own style! It’s not invisible, and I love it.

How can you use your imagination to create something new for yourself or Elephant and Piggie?

Your pal,

Mo!

Laurie Keller is the award-winning author and illustrator of Arnie the Doughnut, The Scrambled States of America, and others. Laurie also wrote and illustrated the Geisel Award-winning ELEPHANT & PIGGIE LIKE READING! book We Are Growing!
